

FRASER ISLAND

highlights

Central Station

Home to a community of more than 100 people in the 1920's timber logging days, Central Station showcases its history along with several forest walks to peaceful Wanggoolba Creek and Basin Lake.

Lake McKenzie

White sand and sparkling blue water - Lake McKenzie is one of the best-known freshwater lakes and a popular swimming spot. To see one of the world's rare dune lakes visit Lake Wabby.

The Cathedrals

The Butchulla believed these iconic cliffs of coloured sands were permanently stained when the gods brushed up against them.

Indian Head

This distinctive rocky cliff is a natural grandstand for absorbing captivating views of crystal clear water painted with manta rays, dolphins and other marine life.

Eli Creek

Pumping four million litres of water into the ocean every hour, Eli Creek is the largest freshwater creek along the east coast.

Champagne Pools

Swimmers flock to this location where waves crash over rocks lining sandy pools with a golden froth reminiscent of champagne bubbles.

75 Mile Beach

This unique stretch of beach running along the east side of Fraser Island is actually a national highway and a unique landing strip for light aircraft.

The 'Maheno' Shipwreck

Once renowned for the fastest trans-atlantic crossing and as a World War I hospital ship, the Maheno succumbed to a cyclone before wrecking on the shores of Fraser Island.
